

SVHS English 10, Part 1, Unit 2 Assignment Worksheet

Use this worksheet or create your own. Save it as a PDF and upload it to the assignment.

Tone / Mood

Fill out the chart below for "The American Embassy" and "Ishwari's Children".

Choose mood and tone words from each passage. Place an example (quote) next to each word. You need at least one word in each row (a minimum of 8 words)

	American Embassy	Ishwari's Children
Ex: Negative Tone	Sick: "the pain was still there"	Word: "quote"
Positive Tone Words
Negative Tone Words
Positive Mood Words
Negative Mood Words

Author's Style – Style Pre-Writing Chart

Compare and contrast the two passages from "The American Embassy" and "Ishwari's Children." What are the key differences? Hint: pay close attention to point of view, rhetorical appeal, and literary conventions. Review the study guide for notes on each style.

In each column, choose rhetorical choices from each passage. Place an example (quote) next to each mood and tone word.

	"The American Embassy"	"Ishwari's Children"
Diction / Word Choice
Examples of diction in story
Sentence Types
Point of View
Quote to support POV
Rhetorical Appeal(s)
Quote to support Appeal(s)
Conventions (metaphor, irony, flashback, etc.)

Examples of conventions

Ex. arrangement of ixora
flowers compared to her son's
LEGOS